

[Award title]: Great Pedagogical Practice

[Target recipient]: Staff members (student participation eligible for collaborative work) on T&I Programmes at APTIS Member Institutions

[Target level]: Staff — UG/PGT

[Deadline for submission]: 15th September 2022, outcome at the Annual APTIS Conference or AGM.

[Description]: Nominate fellow APTIS T&I educators who maximise student learning opportunities and promote good pedagogical practices for this award. These can be individuals or groups of educators who work collaboratively on a joint project (possibly in partnership with students). Interinstitutional collaborations are welcome. You may also want to consider nominating yourself or your team! The (self-)nominated colleagues will record a 5 minute presentation (e.g. on Zoom or PowerPoint recording) or will write a short statement in English explaining what their project is and why it is great pedagogical practice.

[Submission guidelines]: The application should be no more than 400 words or a 5 minute video presentation, explaining the design, its rationale, and how it serves the purpose of improving student experience. A one page appendix to showcase the results may be attached to the application.

Please upload your submissions here by the set deadline: APTIS AWARD 1

As submissions are anonymous, you must fill in this document for us to follow up on your application.

You will see the following window (or similar):

Select your file and click “upload.” Once your submission has been successfully uploaded, the following dialogue box will appear (with apologies for the overly familiar use of “Hey”...):

[Panel]: The APTIS Awards Committee will look after the submissions. Where necessary members of the APTIS Executive Committee and/or external reviewers may be asked to participate in assessing the submissions.

[Award]: £100

[External engagement]: APTIS Awards will be featured on the APTIS website and on social media (Twitter).

[Communication]: the APTIS Awards Committee will communicate to the APTIS members the winners of every category.